BRAIN TEASERS

Death Valley

West Indies

he rose from nowhere

30 pounds overweight

missing you

ageless

flash-in-the-pan

I'm counting on you

break in the action

you win some, you lose some just between you and me go down in history

point blank range

two peas in a pod

we shall overcome

crossbow

equal rights

gross injustice

a cut above the rest

repeat after me

I'm underpaid and overworked

barbershop quartet

Tennessee

one way or the other

accident prone

brains over brawn

all-in-all

double vision

staggers the imagination

sitting on top of the world

Key West

trouble in paradise

too big to ignore

musically inclined

easy on the eyes

partly cloudy

last but not least

sugar cube

bad spell of weather

clams on the half-shell

but on second thought

unfinished symphony

bad moon rising

it's a small world after all endless summer

many are called, few are chosen

big man on campus

paradox

dirty double-cross

home on the range

quarterback halfback fullback

tuna fish

line up in alphabetical order

son-of-a-gun

cryin' shame

the plot thickens

condescending

that's beside the point

Paraguay

what goes up must come down one step forward, two steps back pair of pants

six of one, half a dozen of another
